

Danielson CST Evaluation Rubric

Suggested Edits

2E: Organizing physical space: Proficient and Distinguished

Proficient:

The environment is safe and is accessible for all participants and all can interact well with each other. The furniture arrangement is designed to insure the meeting or activity can proceed smoothly. The CST makes good use of the physical resources and all participants are comfortable because of the environment.

Distinguished

The environment is safe and is accessible for all participants and all can interact well with each other. The furniture arrangement is designed to optimize the meeting or activity. The CST makes excellent use of the physical resources and all participants are able to participate because of the environment.

Proficient: The environment is safe and is accessible for all participants and all can interact well with each other. The CST makes good use of all available resources and all participants are comfortable because of the environment.

This statement has been removed:

The furniture arrangement is designed to insure the meeting or activity can proceed smoothly

Distinguished: The environment is safe and is accessible for all participants and all can interact well with each other. The CST makes excellent use of all available resources and all participants are able to participate because of the environment.

This statement has been removed:

The furniture arrangement is designed to optimize the meeting or activity.

*Note: All CST Evaluation Rubric items apply to in-person as well as virtual scenarios.