

Danielson Guidance Evaluation Rubric

Suggested Edits from DEAC

The Original Language	The Edited Language
2E: Organizing physical space: Proficient and Distinguished Proficient: The environment is safe and is accessible for all participants, and all can interact well with each other. The furniture arrangement is designed to ensure the meeting or activity can proceed smoothly. The counselor makes good use of the physical resources, and all participants are comfortable because of the environment. The counselor does have material needed for the activity or meeting available; however, a little time is lost retrieving the material. Distinguished: The environment is safe and is accessible for all participants, and all can interact well with each other. The furniture arrangement is designed to optimize the meeting or activity. The counselor makes excellent use of the physical resources, and all participants are able to participate in the environment. The counselor has the material needed for the activity or meeting available, and no time is lost.	Proficient: The environment is safe and is accessible for all participants, and all can interact well with each other. The counselor makes good use of all available resources, and all participants are comfortable because of the environment. The counselor does have material needed for the activity or meeting available; however, a little time is lost retrieving the material. This statement has been removed: The furniture arrangement is designed to ensure the meeting or activity can proceed smoothly. Distinguished: The virtual/physical environment is safe and is accessible for all participants, and all can interact well with each other. The counselor makes excellent use of all available resources, and all participants are able to participate in the environment. The counselor has the material needed for the activity or meeting available, and no time is lost. This statement has been removed: The furniture arrangement is designed to optimize the meeting or activity.

*Note: All Guidance Evaluation Rubric items apply to in-person as well as virtual scenarios.