About Bergenfield

Bergenfield is a residential suburb located ten miles from the heart of New York City and draws its pride from its nearly 28,000 citizens who come from many ethnicities, religions and creeds. Its working population predominately come from medical, business and trade careers. The community was ranked 2nd best place to raise children in the state according to Bloomberg Businessweek.

The High School

Bergenfield High School is committed to providing a high quality education for its 1,175 (2016) students and works as an important partner with parents and the community. In 2016, the Washington Post ranked Bergenfield High School number 1190 in the nation as "The Most Challenging Schools in America", number 38 in New Jersey and 9 in Bergen County. Also, U.S. News & World Report ranked the high school among the top 4% of high schools in the United States and was awarded a silver recognition in their Best High Schools report.

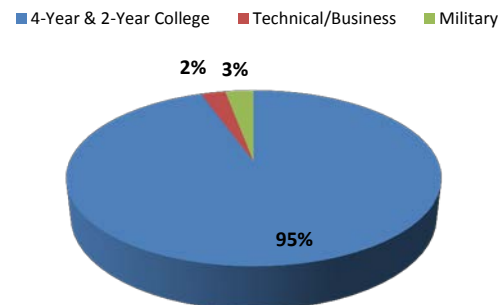

Accreditation

The high school is accredited by the New Jersey State Department of Education and the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. In 2013, the Bergenfield Public Schools became the first in New Jersey to receive district-wide accreditation.

Rank-in-class is determined by listing all students in a grade from highest to lowest. The highest GPA is ranked #1, the second highest is ranked #2, etc. The Weighted Rank will reflect the additional GPA points given for weighted courses successfully completed.

Curriculum

Bergenfield High School's rigorous and innovative programs are designed to help students be successful in an ever changing global society. We were recognized three years ago as a school on the rise by NJ Magazine. A majority of courses offered are college preparatory and honors classes are offered in Art, English, Foreign Language, Math, Music, Social Studies and Science. College credits are available for students to earn through collaborative programs with Fairleigh Dickinson University, The University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey and Dominican College, as well as dual enrollment programs at Ramapo College, Syracuse University, Fairleigh Dickinson and Bergen Community College. Our school offers 28 Advanced Placement courses and 71% of students take at least 1 AP class by graduation.
