This chart will help you evaluate a prominent theme found in your non-fiction book. As you read the book, formulate one theme that carries through the entire book. (In other words, what message is the author trying to convey to his/her readers?) Then, list the best examples you can of evidence that support this theme. Also, mark the page numbers where you find your evidence. You will hand in this worksheet, along with your non-fiction vocabulary log, for a grade in September. (NJSLS: 9-10.RI 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 10; L 1-6)
