A. Student Representative Report by Anna Marin

Today marked the beginning of the fourth marking period here at the high school, as students begin to prepare for this final countdown. The Class of 2025 is currently hosting Spirit Week, the class of 2026 is hosting an apparel sale, and the class of 2023 has just completed our candy gram fundraiser. The Class of 2024 has teamed up with the BP Gas Station located across from Lidl, and with every gallon filled in pumps 3 and 4, they will be donating 2 cents to the class.

There have been multiple events held at BHS and many are coming up, one of which is the annual Staff vs. Seniors Basketball Game this Wednesday evening March 29th with tipoff at 7:00 pm in which we invite all students, parents, and faculty to attend. Pizza, empanadas, and other treats will be sold at this fundraiser contest.

Additionally, Miss New Jersey USA 2023 is coming to BHS as a keynote speaker for women’s history month, hosted by the Thrive Club on Wednesday, March 29th in room 122 where all students are welcome to attend!

In health-related news, The HOSA organization and Executive Congress hosted a blood drive on March 15, 2023 during school hours where we collected over 56 units of blood!

And in theatre here at BHS, Beauty and the Beast tickets are now available on bergenfieldtheatre.ludus.com <<https://bergenfieldtheatre.ludus.com/>>, with shows performed by our drama club on April 27th, 28th, and 29th in the auditorium.

Finally, The National Honor Society Induction Ceremony is tomorrow, March 28th at 8pm in the auditorium. Please join us as we celebrate all the new members on their accomplishments!

After discussion with the student government of each class and their Presidents, there are no current issues and no complaints needing notice. During our last monthly student government meetings, we held an open floor to discuss any issues that I plan to bring to these Board of Education meetings; students are also invited to attend.
