6. Report and Recommendations of Superintendent of Schools

A. Student Representative Report from Vanessa Wood

The 2023-24 school year has commenced with great enthusiasm! On September 1st, the Class of '24 Congress organized the Senior Sunrise event, boasting the highest attendance in years and achieving remarkable success. Senior hoodies were ready in time for the sunrise and distributed during the event. Currently, Congress is conducting a merchandise sale for those who were unable to acquire their senior hoodies earlier. Additionally, Congress successfully held an ice cream truck fundraiser and operated snack stands at the recent school-wide events - the pep rally and the first home football game of the season. Congress plans to hold snack stands at all upcoming football games to raise funds for prom, which, unfortunately, had to be pushed to a later date due to finals.

Extracurricular activities are also in motion! The dance team is actively organizing multiple fundraisers to support their journey to Nationals. They're hosting an apparel sale and a Boba Truck fundraiser which takes place tomorrow. Furthermore, on October 7th, The Pink Floyd Project will present an immersive performance, featuring a special appearance by the Dance Team. Support for the Dance Team is highly encouraged as they strive towards Nationals. The Drama Club's fall musical, "Clue," has been cast, and they will hold their first read-through this Thursday. Join us in supporting the RISE club's mission to raise Suicide awareness by wearing purple or turquoise this upcoming Wednesday.

Regarding student concerns or complaints, no formal reports have been submitted for me to present at this meeting. However, moving forward, pending approval from Principal Fasano, I aim to implement a Google form to directly collect feedback from students regarding any issues they may wish for me to address at BOE meetings.
